BENIDICKSON FLAYS TORIES ON NEW BUDGET

OTTAWA — Hon. Donald Fleming, minister of finance, was described as an "Indian giver" in the Commons Monday by William Benidickson, Liberal financial critic.

W. M. BENIDICKSON, M.P.

The value of the minister's tax increases in a full year in the latest budget take back $2 for every one dollar of tax reduction he found possible between the 1957 and 1958 elections, the member for Kenora-Rainy River said.

The minister had triggered off consumers price costs well in excess of the tax yields. They would hit the average consumer hard in the pocketbook.

Mr. Benidickson noted that cigarets had gone up three cents on a pack of 20 and four cents for 25. Manufacturers of electrical appliances were forecasting higher prices as a result of the budget. Car prices were up, the prices of gasoline and diesel fuel were climbing.

He noted that Mr. Fleming was forecasting a higher gross national product. But he said that Canada's recovery is lagging behind the faster pace set by United States industry despite the fact Canada had less lost ground to recover than the U.S.

Saying the government is handling its finances by hindsight instead of foresight, he presented a non-confidence motion charging the administration with bad faith and "flagrant disregard of pre-election promises" by budgeting for higher taxes, record expenditures and a large deficit.

DECLINING BOND

Mr. Benidickson said an obvious indicator of descending confidence across the land in the competence and understanding or determination of this government to cope successfully with the massive problems before it, was the steadily declining price offerings for its bonds. He noted that even after budget night the government's securities weakened again.

"The latest budget no more than former financial statements of the minister during the past almost two years of office succeeded in convincing the country

Leslie Bodger Tops Class of 52, in City Festival

Kenora's talented Leslie Bodger, scored her biggest triumph to date, when Tuesday afternoon she won the Sacred Solo class in the current Winnipeg Music Festival. Competing in a class of 52, for male and female voices, she earned the outstanding mark of 86, the highest mark for singing to be awarded to date in this festival. The second place winners were three marks behind Leslie with 83 marks.

For her singing of "O Praise the Lord," adjudicator Henry Cummings highly commended Leslie, stating that, "this was a very good voice with expressive qualities. There was a good deal of variety in tone and colour and the words were clear."

Leslie's win yesterday marks the second time she has topped a class in the Winnipeg festival. Last week she won the soprano class with 82 marks and came second in the Folk Tune class.

Thursday night, Leslie will compete with other solo winners for the Tudor Bowl, one of the major awards of the festival. All Kenora joins in offering congratulations to this young musician and to wish her well in the Tudor Bowl competition.

Leslie is a pupil of Mrs. Gladys Whitehead, of Kenora.

CONFERENCE URGES COMMUNITY PROGRAMS OFFICE AT DRYDEN

DRYDEN, Ont — Strong support for a brief urging establishment in Dryden of a distrist office of the community programs branch, Ontario department of education, was given by members of the northwestern zone, Ontario Recreation Association, at closing sessions of the annual conference here Saturday.

At present northwestern Ontario is served by two representatives working out of the community programs branch office in Fort William. This office serves an area approximately equal to one-third the area of the province.

HELD ESSENTIAL

In view of the rapid economic and population growth of communities in northwestern Ontario and the importance which industry and municipal government places on provision of recreational opportunities for employees and citizens, the recreation group felt it essential that an additional branch be located in the western section at Dryden.

Another resolution urged an investigating committee be established comprising medical doctors, educators, youth workers, social workers and the clergy to examine the many aspects of the problem of providing accurate information on boy-girl relationships on a regular and continuous basis as a part of youth training.

A similar resolution was passed last weekend at the annual Northwestern Ontario youth conference in Port Arthur.

FOULDS NAMED PRESIDENT

Jim Foulds, personnel supervisor, St. Lawrence Corporation, Red Rock, was elected zone president. Other officers elected were Rev. Russell Peden, Port Arthur,

Pres. Announces Resignation Of John Foster Dulles

The resignation of American Secretary of State Dulles, who is ill with cancer, was announced early today by President Eisenhower.

The President's eyes were moist as he made the announcement to a news conference at his Augusta, Georgia, vacation headquarters.

He said he will announce a successor to Dulles soon, but declined to say whether the job will go to under secretary, Christian Herter.

Herter has been serving as acting secretary.

The President also said he has asked Dulles to continue to serve him as a foreign policy consultant.

A newsman told the president it had been pretty much been taken for granted that Herter would be advanced to Dulles' post.

Asked whether he had someone else in mind, the President said there are all kinds of considerations to take into account.

He added there are a number of people with particular talents, who could fill the top foreign policy post.

The President's dramatic announcement came less than 24 [illegible] doctors expressed the view his cancer had probably spread to the neck area.

If caught in the woods by night, fog or storm, one should stop at once and make camp in a sheltered spot.

Two Lucky Dollars Making The Rounds

Early this morning, a member of the staff of CJRL placed another "Lucky Dollar" in circulation through a local store with Hawaii on the door. Today's travelling dollar bears the serial number,

IL 3179611

This bill is redeemable up to 5.00 p.m., Friday, April 17th for a $5.00 credit note at any participating store in the "Buy Locally" contest.

TRAIN DERAILMENT NEAR KEEWATIN TIES UP C.P.R. MAIN LINE SERVICE

East-West Canadian Pacific Railway Traffic was resumed today after work crews cleared a siding at Keewatin following the derailment of 34 units of a 126 car East bound freight last night. No one was injured. The accident occurred at approximately 7.45, one mile west of Keewatin, at a point where the east-west double track lines are close together.

The west-bound transcontinental train, The Canadian was about 11 hours late arriving in Winnipeg this morning after being shunted through the siding which had been covered with wreckage along with the two main lines. The west-bound Dominion was running about three hours late. Other passenger and freight trains also were delayed.

Track repair crews and equipment from Winnipeg and Kenora cleared the siding first and then went to work on the main lines where the 34 boxcars, including three gas tank cars, were piled up and more than 150 feet of track were ripped apart. Dripping gasoline from the tank cars caused concern at one stage but the danger was soon eliminated. Grain from some boxcars bound for the Lakehead spilled over in large piles on the tracks.

The derailed cars were at the front of the freight. The diesel engine managed to "break loose" from the cars when they started to tip.

Cause of the derailment was not determined, but one report was that a burned journal box resulted in a wheel falling off the third boxcar from the engine.

40th Med Regiment Holds Civil Defence Exercise

A Civil Defence Exercise was held at the Kenora Armouries on Sunday, April 12th, 1959 at 2.00 p.m. Approximately 30 Officers, Senior N.C.O.'s and Civil Defence personnel attended.

Films were shown on radiation detection and warning devices. Capt. P. Playfair gave a lecture on Radiation instruments and the preparation of a Civil Defence exercise to be held on May 10th, 1959.

It was felt that those attending had gained considerable knowledge in the preparation for the exercise to be held in May.

LIBERALS UNANIMOUSLY CHOOSE WREN AS PROVINCIAL CANDIDATE

Our EDITORIAL VIEWPOINT

WAKE UP AND READ

Canadian Library Week, April 12 to 18 is being observed here in Kenora as well as in all communities throughout the country. The Kenora Public Library is featuring attractive book displays as well as a travelling art exhibit.

With attention being focused on libraries during this national week, it is interesting to note that if everybody in Canada went to a public library to borrow a book at the same time, two out of every five people would come back empty handed because there just aren't enough books to go around.

It seems that more people are using public libraries than ever before. The story is the same here in Kenora. Recent figures released by the Library Board show that circulation has more than tripled in the past three years. The same holds true for other services offered by our library, particularly in regard to the film service. More films were rented last year than ever before, and more people viewed the films too.

The Kenora Public Library, like other libraries in Canada supplies this area with much more than books. For instance, the library has maps, periodicals, the latest magazines and newspapers, films, space for displays and art exhibits and of course reference sections. The library is also always suitably decorated with flowers, exhibits, etc. in keeping with the changing seasons and holidays.

We in Kenora are most fortunate in that we have as librarian, Miss Etta Stephen. Vitally interested in all phases of her work, she has through the years, guided the reading habits of young and old alike in this ever growing community. We are fortunate, too, in that Miss Stephen has such capable people as assistants and is backed by a library board that serves with distinction.

Make a point of visiting the Kenora Public Library this week and thus show that you recognize the importance of the Library to our community and the services it offers to the public.

ORIGIN OF PLACE NAMES

Once again Canon Sanderson has an interesting story. This time, the Legend of Sioux Lookout.

This story is not based on reference, but simply the story as told by the Indians living in the district, and refers not to the town of Sioux Lookout but to the hill just west of the town.

In the early days, the different tribes of Indians did not live on any too friendly terms with one another, and for that reason each kept more or less to their own territory, through the more warlike of them sometimes went on raiding excursions. Among these were the Sioux, whose territory lay to the south and west of that occupied by the Ojibways of the Lake of the Woods District. On occasions they got as far north and east as the Lac Seul district, and it was on one of these occasions that a clash occurred between a raiding party of Siouxs and Ojibways of Lac Seul.

The encounter took place on the hill that the Ojibways named Paun Otuhsahwahpewin, The Sioux Lookout. The hill stands on the west shore of Abram Lake, just where it narrows down connecting it with Pelican Lake. It was a spot that suited well the purpose of the raiding party, for from the top of the hill they could get a good view of the surrounding lakes. In those days the lakes were the main highways of travel in the summer time. The mode of strategy was to place a lookout party on the top of the hill, while others lay in ambush with their canoes at the bottom. Hence the name Paun Otuhsahwahpewin, translated into English "Sioux Lookout". It was the duty of those on top to keep a lookout and woe betide any unwary traveller who might happen to pass by that way, for at the proper time the signal was given, and those below would rush out and make short work of their unfortunate victims.

For how long these raids continued, it was impossible to tell, for the oldest Ojibway of Lac Seul had heard of them from his father and his father before him.

One day however, the people of Lac Seul got word that the Paunug - (The Siouxs) were again on the warpath and were in hiding at their favorite spot,

Claim Staking In Province Shows Upward Trend

Claim staking in Ontario which had been declining steadily for more than two years showed a distinct upward trend during the first three months of this year when 6,848 claims were recorded as compared with only 4,914 in the corresponding period of 1958.

Figures released by the Ontario Department of Mines show that nearly one-third of all the claims staked in the entire province were taken up in the Larder Lake division where there has been great activity in the Abitibi Lake area, near the Quebec boundary. There the search is for copper and other base metals. Several prominent mining and exploration companies are engaged in the area. The activity has extended westward into the Porcupine division. There has also been a great increase in prospecting activity in the Sudbury divisions.

Altogether eight of the 13 divisions in the province have shown an increase in the first quarter of this year over the same period in 1958.

Surprisingly, in view of the increased staking activity there has been a decline in the number of miner's licenses issued this year as compared with the first quarter of last year. To the end of March, 4,479 licenses had been issued or renewed as compared with 4,645 in the first three months of 1958.

Comparative figures of claims recorded for all the divisions are as follows:

	First Three Months 1958	1959
Fort Frances	387	58
Kenora	180	365
Larder Lake	333	2,236
Montreal River	304	356

Red Lake	104	233

Local Regiment Welcomes Officer

A newcomer to Kenora, 2nd Lieutenant J. G. Cootes was recently welcomed as a member of the 40th Medium Regiment.

J. G. Cootes was born in Selkirk, Manitoba and received his school education there.

He served with the Selkirk School Cadets from 1947 to 1950. In 1950, Gordon joined the Fort Garry Horse Militia and served in this Militia unit until his transfer to the Permanent Force in 1951.

From 1951 to 1954, he served with the Lord Strathcona Horse, and saw service in Japan, Canada and Korea.

Gordon and his wife came to Kenora in March 1959 where he is presently employed at Robinson's Store as a training manager.

It is felt that Lt. Cootes will be a very great asset to the 40th Medium Regiment.

Paun Otuhsahwahpewin. This time they would go prepared and meet the foe in his own way. A great council of war was held and amidst much beating of drums and war-whoops, a plan of strategy was decided upon. In dead of night the warriors embarked in their birch bark canoes and glided noiselessly off into the darkness. Before dawn they landed at the appointed place which was far from where the Sioux looked for an attack.

War knows no weariness and by break of day the Ojibways, who had made their stealthy way through bush at the back side of the hill were ready for the attack. With whops and yells they fell upon their unsuspecting foe and a fierce battle ensued.

It was never learned how many took part for either side, but the Sioux had the reputation of being brave warriors and great fighters, and though taken by surprise, and perhaps outnumbered, they must have put up a good fight for the battle lasted for some time.

The Ojibways lost heavily, according to legend, but when it was over, it was found that there was only one boy left of the Siouxs. Being only a boy and not looked upon as an enemy warrior, he was saved and taken by the victorious Ojibways to Lac Seul where he grew up into manhood. That was the last war-like visit of the Sioux into that part of the country.

When Canon Sanderson went to Lac Seul fifty-six years ago, the grandson (so he claimed), who was then elderly, of that Sioux Boy, was Chief of the Lac Seul Band of Indians.

The castle of Rothesay in Scotland, founded in 1098, was restored from the 7th century or earlier.

Long term weather records show that among Canadian cities St. John's Newfoundland, has the greatest annual rainfall.

vincial legislation, finances, and Provincial - Federal relations. He stated that he knows and recognizes his own shortcomings at times and he pointed out that much of the problem of any M L A representing this region are caused by the great distance of the riding from the centre of Government combined with the regrettable lack of familiarity with our problems on the part of the majority of Ontario legislators.

Guest speaker Mr. Royce Frith, of Toronto a member of the Provincial Liberal Federation, spoke with considerable humour on Provincial affairs generally. However, in very serious vein he told the Convention of the energetic and sustained representation which Mr. Wren has given this constituency. Mr. Frith also reported at some length on his visits as an executive of the party to the eastern constituencies and indicated that the new Ontario Liberal party leader in the legislature Mr. Wintermeir. His policies and his conduct as leader of the Opposition have made a deep and lasting impression throughout Eastern Ontario, he said, which is reflected in a steady and sturdy increase in support of the Liberal party.

Greetings to the Convention from W. M. "Bill" Benidickson Federal Member, and regrets that duties at Ottawa precluded the possibility of his attendance were read to the delegates. Mr. Frith conveyed the greeting of Mr. Wintermeir, leader of the Ontario Liberals.

Letter to the Editor

933 Oakenwald Ave.,
Winnipeg 9, Man.
April 12, 1959.

The Editor,
Miner and News,
Kenora, Ont.

Dear Sir,

I was somewhat amused to read in Tuesday's Miner of a proposal to mark the main channels and islands on the Lake of the Woods with large signs. My amusement changed to alarm, however, when I found in Thursday's edition an editorial supporting the proposal.

I do not doubt the good intentions of the Chamber of Commerce in suggesting this project. Unfortunately, the Chamber has overlooked the fact that the lake is as well marked now as the most modern highway in Canada. To the man with a set of lake charts and a good compass (obtainable at a total cost of less than five dollars) every island, bay and point, and every buoy and light are "road signs" just as easily read as the signs along the highway.

Those who do not own, or are unable to use map and compass are well advised to stay out of unfamiliar waters. Such a person straying off the marked channel for any reason might well be unable to find his way back to it, with fatal consequences.

Furthermore, the Kenora Chamber of Commerce should be a guardian of the magnificent scenery which attracts so many tourists to the area. I can think of few schemes which would so effectively disfigure the scenery on the Lake of the Woods as "large arrows . . . stencilled on rocks, indicating the direction of Kenora, Clearwater Bay, Sioux Narrows, etc. with other necessary information printed below."

By all means the Chamber should encourage boat owners to see more of this beautiful lake than the extreme northern portion. I have travelled by boat to Sioux Narrows, Nestor Falls, Oak Island and Shoal Lake and I can vouch for the beauty of each of these areas. In my opinion, however, a sign-painting project is neither a necessary nor a desirable way of encouraging travel on the lake.

Yours truly,
Alan L. Crossin.

THE SKUNK REMAINED

ELIZABETHTON, Tenn. — When Mrs. Ann Snavely sought help to evict a skunk living beneath her home, policeman Oral Campbell hurled a tear gas bomb at the animal.

The skunk stayed on.

Mrs. Snavely moved her children out Friday night.

They coudn't stand the tear gas.

BUT HARD TO SELL

SAN FRANCISCO — Young women would be better prepared for homemaking if they worked as domestic servants instead of as secretaries or in factories.

That's the opinion of Gen. Wilfred Kitching of London, international leader of the Salvation Army.

He explained: A chambermaid knows more about nest-building than a girl punching a machine or taking shorthand.

While everybody else was excited by hockey, the basketball Muskies of Fort Frances high school slipped quietly to Kenora and brought back the Norwassa championship.

The Senior Muskies defeated the Kenora Mustangs 55-12 to claim the interschool pennant. The pennant is decided on basis of two games and the Muskies had won earlier by a 71-56 score for a 31-point bulge in the series.

In the last regular game of the season, the Muskies' top scorers were Mel Trethart with 14 points, and Ted Krestanowich with 13.

The Muskies B squad also made the trip and tied the younger Kenora team 37-all.

HOUSEWORK FOUND HARD ON THE EYES

SALT LAKE CITY — The little woman may have good reason to complain of a headache after a day of houseworking.

A Los Angles eye expert, Dr. James R. Gregg, told the Utah Optometric Association Sunday a survey of occupations showed the housewife's job is more demanding on the eyes than any other.

A research team sampled some 200 occupations to help optometrists fit glasses compatible with a person's work, said Dr. Gregg, a member of the team. He said relatively few jobs require sustained use of the eyes.

But demands on a housewife's eyes are many and varied, he said—as she spots an errant child blocks away, sews on buttons or peers into the oven.

TESTED RECIPES AND HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Leftover chicken can be served in various ways. This is one of the easiest and is ever so good on toast.

Creamed Chicken

2 cups cooked chicken
2 tbsps. fat
2 tbsps. flour
1 cup milk or cream
Salt and pepper
1 tbsp. parsley
1 egg yolk

Make a white sauce of the fat, flour and milk. Season with salt and pepper. Add the parsley and chicken and cook until the sauce is thoroughly hot again. Beat the egg yolk adding 2 tbsps. milk and pour into the mixture. Cook 2 minutes, stirring constantly and serve.

Hint for Today

Creamed chicken may be varied in a number of ways; by substituting mushrooms or chopped cooked eggs for part of the chicken or by adding chopped pimientos and olives.

Dry Reading

MOSCOW —Alexander G. Baulin, deputy chief editor of the government newspaper Izvestia, says too many Soviet papers read like factory bulletins. In an article in the magazine Soviet Press, Baulin declared Soviet papers are overloaded with official decrees, chapters from party textbooks and statistical articles.

Cash Bargain Unadvertised

ALLEN PARK, Mich. — Mrs. Irene Manke, an Allen Park housewife, struck it rich at the supermarket Sunday.

When she got home and began putting her groceries away she found a paper bag containing hundreds of dollars in cash, plus a lot of cheques.

She said she didn't count it but called the store manager, who rushed over to retrieve the day's receipts.

"He didn't even thank me," she said.

Joined Army To Travel

CAMP GAGETOWN, N.B. — Yolande Triquet, 22, brown-haired, blue-eyed and pretty, says she didn't join the army just because her father did.

She's the daughter of Col. Paul Triquet, who won the Victoria Cross in Italy during the Second World War. He now is in the lumber business in Quebec City.

One of five army nursing sisters now serving here, Miss Triquet said in an interview: "I didn't join the army just because my father was in it. I wanted to travel and I wanted an opportunity to serve my country."

So far she's travelled only from Kingston, Ont., to Camp Gagetown, but she's hoping for a posting to the Canadian infantry brigade in West Germany.

Training in nursing at St. Sacrament Hospital at Quebec, she can recall some of the acclaim that her father received after he won the VC while serving with the Royal 22nd Regiment. She was only seven at the time.

Miss Triquet learned to speak English at Camp Borden, Ont., where her father was posted after the war. She has been in the army only two months, and says she will wait until her three-year term is up before deciding whether to stay in.

Largest Aerial Survey Planned In N. Ontario

MONTREAL — Sixty thousand square miles of northwestern Ontario this summer are to undergo the largest aerial mineral-search ever launched in Canada, it was announced Monday.

Ontario Mines Minister James A. Maloney said the aerial part of the survey will start within a few weeks.

After its completion, maps will be made and a ground geophysical survey will follow.

Ontario will pay two thirds of the cost of the aerial work with the balance, and the cost of the ground survey, paid by the federal government.

Mr. Maloney told the annual meeting of the Canadian Institute of Minning and Metallurgy. The project was "the most far-reaching agreement ever to be consumated by the mining departments of the Canadian and Ontario governments."

Results of the survey would be made available in map sheets to prospectors and mining companies.

Federal mines minister Hon. Paul Comptois confirmed that his department would make the ground survey once the air work is finished, and that it would cost approximately $300,000. The aerial survey bill will be $400,000.
