4 Adjudicators - 4 Auditoriums And Five Days Required For Record Number of Participants

With all the enthusiasm which comes with success — Kenora's 10th annual Music Festival opens its doors Monday morning for a record five day run and will feature four adjudicators, four auditoriums and a record entry list.

After a wartime lapse, the Music Festival was revived locally last year and met with such favor that the interest it aroused never slackened over the months. It became evident to the executive in the fall that it would be necessary to not only separate drama from music, but to lengthen the music festival schedule from 3 to 5 days. And of course this meant extra adjudicators and extra accommodation.

Four distinguished adjudicators will appear here during the week. They are Ronald Gibson, Miss Gertrude McCance, Mrs. Melba Cuddy and Mrs. Francis Christie.

Tickets for all daytime sessions are $1.00 and may be purchased in various stores. Sessions will be conducted in the Legion Auditorium, High School Auditorium, St. Alban's Pro-Cathedral Parish Hall and King George VI School auditorium. Excellent programmes, giving all details of the festival, may be purchased for 25 cents at the door.

The Kenora District Music Festival is under the distinguished patronage of His Excellency the Rt. Honourable Vincent Massey, C.H., Governor-General of Canada; His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, Louis O. Breithaupt; the Honourable Leslie M. Frost, Premier of Ontario; the Rt. Rev. J. Lofthouse, Bishop of Keewatin; His Honour Judge Earle C. Popham, Kenora, Ont.; Wm. M. Benidickson, M.P., Kenora-Rainy River; Albert Wren, M.P.P., Kenora District; E. E. SAYS 'DAILY WORKER'

LONDON — The communist Daily Worker of London, England, says in a front-page story that returning British prisoners of the Korean war have "killed for all time American-inspired atrocity stories." The paper adds that:

"All paid tribute to their captors' treatment."

In adjoining columns, the Worker banners another story alleging that "Britain is angry" against the United States for "preventing success in (Korean) truce talks."

Fred Boucha Won M & N Trophy Docked Yesterday at 5.30 p.m.

It's all over - officially. The First Annual Navigation Contest sponsored jointly by the Kenora-Keewatin Daily Miner and News and fourteen Kenora merchants, came to a dramatic end on Friday afternoon at exactly 5.30 p.m. when Fred Boucha docked at the Kenora Fish Market dock and was greeted by the referee, Carl Lindstrom. He followed, by a few hours, the arrival of the Martin boys, who just failed to qualify, due to the fact they came in from a point 23½ miles out while the rules call for a 25 mile distance.

Here is the official notice received by the Navigation Editor from Referee Carl Lindstrom:

Kenora, Ont., May 1st, 1953.

Mr. Fred Boucha came in by boat from French Portage, Lake of the Woods, landing at the Kenora Fish Market dock at exactly 5.30 p.m. today. He followed the usual boat channel and encountered no ice, thereby officially opening up navigation on Lake of the Woods for this season.

Carl Lindstrom.

This morning the handsome big Miner and News Trophy was presented to Mr. Boucha, together with a small replica which will remain his personal property. The large trophy will be on display in our windows for a time, and then be given to Mr. Boucha to hold until next spring.

The task facing the judges in selecting the winner, was made easier by the sudden ending. It was expected that ice would be solid in parts of the channels until next week. Nevertheless selecting the winning entry from the mound of forms will keep the judges busy for some considerable time.

N. W. HOME AND SCHOOL ENJOYED FILMS -- MUSIC THURSDAY NIGHT

The regular monthly meeting of the South Ward Home and School Association was held on Thursday evening, April 23rd, at 8 p.m. in the school, with a very nice number of parents in attendance. Mrs. Mahjorie Barber, president, was in the chair.

The meeting opened with the singing of "O Canada" followed by the repeating of "The Lord's Prayer." The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Tansley and Mrs. Murkin gave the treasurer's report.

Mr. Hunt, principal, spoke briefly re the enrollment of children for kindergarten and Grade I, and sincerely thanked the ladies for their help in getting the enrollment forms completed. The attendance prize was won by the Grade 2 pupils who have as their teacher Miss Melbourne.

A film entitled "Across the Arctic to Ungava" was then shown. The business portion of the meeting was then dispensed with, after which all gathered round to listen to the lovely music of Gordon Anderson and his orchestra. Members of the orchestra with Mr. Anderson were: Orval Herbert, Harold Hancock and Lawrence Rostabutko. The music was very en-

SAFETY WEEK STARTS SUNDAY

"Operation Safety" will be in Kenora next week from Sunday, May 3 to Saturday, May 9. The program is being sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. Aims of the program are to make the public more traffic safety conscious, to check on the mechanical condition of cars and to reduce such unsafe practices as speeding and reckless driving.

Again this year a traffic safety lane will be in action. The lane will be set up in a different location, and operate at different times, for each day of the week. The exact location and time for the safety lane each day will not be revealed. In this way it is hoped that cars in different parts of the town can be accommodated.

A new idea in traffic control will be working this year. Several men will be watching the habits of Kenora drivers throughout "Operation Safety". Any car guilty of breaking a traffic law will be checked and the driver sent a courteous letter. This is part of the scheme to make local streets safer for children and older pedestrians alike.

Local churches will be including a safety message in their services on Sunday, May 3.

An outstanding film on driving entitled "Driver Jeckyll and Mr. Hyde" will be shown at the Paramount Theatre the first three days of next week and at the Bijou the last three days.

QUEEN MOTHER'S BROTHER DIED

LONDON — The Honourable Michael Bowes-Lyon — 59-year-old brother of Queen Mother Elizabeth — died last night. He was the third son of the 14th Earl of Strathmore and a veteran of both world wars.

The Lord Chamberlain, head of the royal household, announced Queen Elizabeth the Second will observe family mourning. The length of the mourning period was not specified, but family mourning does not mean wholesale cancellation of the royal family's public engagements.

RED SHIELD ANNUAL APPEAL STARTS $3,500 NEEDED TO CARRY ON S.A. WORK

It's awful easy to forget suffering that's a million miles away from you. But it's there just the same. And it's not always a million miles away . . . some of it is right around the corner. Even that too, is easy to forget. But there are those who do not forget. Day in and day out, night after night the Salvation Army ministers to those who suffer and are in need. Seventy years ago the Salvation Army came to Canada and during that time it has steadily fought for the under-privileged, the wronged, the suffering, the lonely and the poor. It is known as the Army of Mercy to thousands of little people. But all the good it has been able to do, has been on YOUR behalf, . . . as the instrument of your good-will — you who support the Savaltion Army with your money during the annual Red Shield appeals. There's one commencing next week. The Salvation Army will call at your door—when that happens remember those who are so easy to forget, and please give generously.

A local committee has been set up with Col. A. T. Fife as chairman, Miss F. Humble vice-chairman, Mayor A. R. Pitt and Mr. A. M. rBown publicity and Mr. L. A. Toole treasurer. The business section will be canvassed under the direction of Hiro Oshiro and a blitz campaign is planned for under the direction of Mr. Stan Houghton with the co-operation of local service clubs.

The CBC Trans-Canada network (CBW) is carrying a salute to the Salvation Army from 2 to 3. Listen for it.

12 Go To The Post in Derby

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Twelve three-year-old horses — including unbeaten Native Dancer and the highly regarded Correspondent — have been entered for today's running of the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs. All of the probable field was in before the entry box officialy closed.

The entry box was not scheduled to close until 11 a.m. EDT, but 15 minutes before the deadline the name of Dark Star — winner of the Derby trial — was dropped into the entry box to complete the expected field.

Track conditions will determine whether all 12 face starter Ruby White at 5.30 p.m. EDT for the getaway of the mile-and-one-quarter, $100,000 turf classic.

Alfred Vanderbilt's Social Outcast — stablemate of the favored Dancer — is not expected to start if the track is muddy as it was yesterday after a heavy overnight rain. Money Broker — owned by P. A. Grisson and Ed Grosfield of Detroit —is considered a doubtful starter if the track is fast.

The other entries are: Ace Destroyer, an outsider, owned by T. M. Daniel of Lexington, Kentucky . . . Currage King, Irish-bred colt owned by E. M. Goemans of Milwaukee . . . Royal Bay Jem, one of the favorites, owned by Eugene Constantin Junior . . . Investigator of the Saxon stable. . . . Greentree's Straight Face, and Cain Hoy stable's Dark Star, winner of the Derby trial.

In the draw for the post positions Ace Destroyer drew No. 1 with Native Dancer in No. 7 and Correspondent in No. 2.

Other position drawn were: 3, Rum O'War; 4, Invigorator; 5, Spy Defence; 6, Currage King; 8, Money Broker; 9, Social Outcast; 10, Straight Face; 11, Dark Star and 12, Royal Bay Gem.

Unbeaten Native Dancer will place one of turf history's most enviable records on the line.

THE Calvert SPORTS COLUMN

by Elmer Ferguson

The afternoon of Saturday, May 2, will be the occasion of the seventy-ninth running of the Kentucky Derby, at Churchill Downs, Louisville. Scores of thousands of out-of-town novelty seekers will be present. Perhaps local and visiting attendance will lift the total to more than 100,000. And it's all about a race that doesn't seem to deserve the attention, publicity and money lavished upon it.

For the Derby isn't a derby, to begin with — not in the requirements of distance, for example. Of course, in America the term "derby" has come to be used very loosely, and very frequently. All sorts of tracks have a "derby" annually. But few, if any, parallel the daddy of all derbies, the Epsom Downs race, in the matter of distance.

This Kentucky Derby, run annually on the first Saturday of May furnishes the first test of three-year-olds over the distance of one and one-quarter miles. This is one-fourth of a mile short of the regular Derby distance as established by the English classic run at Epsom Downs, from which the name "derby" is derived. The English race is at a mile and a half, and is raced in early June.

The Kentucky race occurs almost too early for eligible females of this age to compete on equal terms with colts. And it is too early to condition even the males of the species for a ten-furlong struggle.

You may think that transportation difficulties are annoying now. But back in 1875, the year the Derby was first run as a modest little race, the sporting folks of the era who attended really had grief. The "Louisville" Jockey Club race-track" since labeled Churchill Downs, was so far from the city that horse-drawn street cars required two hours to make the trip. Many of the customers started to walk the distance early in the morning. Others went in wagons, buggies and on horseback. Attending the Derby in the seventies and eighties was a journey, not a trip.

Arrangements for the race were primitive. There was, of course, nothing like a starting gate. Even the web barrier of 40 years ago was unknown. The starter drew a line in the dirt across the track with the butt of the flag he used to start the field and then lined up the candidates well behind it. A walk-up start was the system.

When "Col. Johnson of Nashville", the starter for the first of all Kentucky Derbies, got his field in alignment he flashed down his flag. A drum sounded the official start and the field was off.

There were many other differences between the races of those early days, and now. It has gained in importance, in glamour, in attendance, and in speculative interest, so who are we to point out minor technical shortcomings of the continent's No. 1 glamour race?

Your comments and suggestions for this column will be welcomed by Elmer Ferguson, c/o Calvert House, 431 Yonge St., Toronto.

BOY SCOUT ACTIVITIES

By "Trailblazer"

"WEEK-END CAMP", by D.S.

The week-end of April 25-26, saw the 1st Keewatin and the 8th Kenora Scout Troops at the Colin K. Hewitt Memorial Boy Scout Camp. Scoutmaster D. Danielson with five of his troop arrived early in the afternoon, and got things moving. At 2.30, Mr. Henton and Mr. Symonds arrived with the 8th Troop, and the balance of the 1st Troop. District Scoutmaster G. Noble arrived at 5.30 with one more Scout. Three boys of the 6th Troop joined the 8th for the week-end. The total number in camp was 29, made up with the two scoutmasters. Assistant Scoutmaster Wilf Symonds of the 8th Troop, and two Troop Leaders, Edwin Ford of the 1st, and Jack Paul of the 8th, and 24 Boy Scouts.

Scoutmaster Danielson had started supper, but turned the job over to Scoutmaster Noble on his arrival. After supper, the dishes washed, the boys enjoyed sitting around the blazing campfire, singing and talking. The two scoutmasters took this opportunity to get a few serious thoughts across to the scouts.

After camp fire, bed, but no sleep until long after midnight. The boys lost one hour's sleep through daylight saving going into effect that night. The night was cold, but seven boys braved an open verandah with no apparent ill-effects. The rest took over the beds, and the unfortunate ones got the floor. The boys slept until, 7.30 a.m. Sunday.

Sunday morning at 6.30, Scoutmaster Danielson drove the Roman Catholic Scouts to Mass at Keewatin while District Scoutmaster Noble cooked bacon and eggs for those who stayed at camp. After breakfast came flag-break and a 'Scout's Own' Service conducted by the "D.S.", assisted by the A.S.M. and Troop Leaders. The morning was spent in games and tramps through the woods. S. M. Danielson cooked a dinner of hamburgers and potatoes with all the trimmings.

The Camp was cleaned up, assisted by a couple of lady visitors whose names I will not mention. At 4.30 p.m. the Keewatin Troop headed for home, but owing to the change of time, the 6th Troop got away at 6.30 p.m. All in all a good time was had by everybody.

Roy Hughes, Richard Andrews, and Ronald Favreau, all members of the 3rd Kenora Wolf Cub Pack, were recipients of proficiency badges on Tuesday, April 28. Roy, Richard and Ron received Toymaker Badges, and Richard also received his House Orderly Badge.

At 8.00 p.m., the Cubs saw two films, "Ungava Bay", and "The Kings Man". Both films proved very interesting to the young fry, especially "Ungava Bay" with its wild life and the Eskimos in northern Canada. The second film, "The King's Man", is a missionary film, filmed in Africa, and produced by the United Church of Canada.

May 12 will be the last day, for the next few months, that the 3rd Pack will be able to hold its meetings in the church basement. The church is installing a new heating system, but this will not hinder the cubs from meeting, as plans are being made to hold outdoor meetings when possible. All sixers will know well in advance when and where the Next weekly meeting will be held, whether indoors or outdoors.

The 3rd Kenora Scout Troop will hold their last indoor meeting at Knox on Wednesday, May 23. They are also planning for outdoor meetings.

We are pleased to report that the 2nd Kenora Pack and Scout Troop paraded with all members present, to a St. George's Day service at St. Alban's Pro-Cathedral on Sunday morning, April 26th.

Stafford, Virginia — A young motorist has parked his car beside the Court House at Stafford, Virginia, and says he'll make it his home for the duration of a 30-day suspension of his driver's licence.

Today began the fourth day of a sit-down wait by Johnny Franklin Fisher, about 20. His lone companion is a pet squirrel.

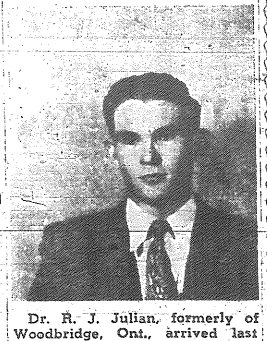

Fisher was fined $200 and his permit suspended Tuesday after police arrested him following a 90-mile an hour chase last month.

Says Justice Bascom S. Pribble, Jr., who ordered Fisher's driving permit suspended:

"As long as he's quiet and doesn't do any harm, I have no objections to him sitting there."

Not True Say Palace Spokesmen

LONDON — A Buckingham Palace spokesman scoffs at reports that Princess Margaret may enter a religious order after the June 2nd coronation.

The New York Daily News, in a dispatch from Washington carried the report. It attributed it to "diplomats returning from London."

The Palace spokesman says there is no reason to believe Princess Margaret is contemplating anything of the kind.

The petite, violet-eyed 22-year-old Princess was once the acknowledged leader of London's younger smart set and spent most of her evenings at nightclubs or dinner parties.

But since the death of her father—King George VI — just over a year ago she has lived quietly with her mother, Queen Elizabeth.

ticing and before long the chairs were put back and members joined together in social two-steps, old time waltzes, Schottishes, butterfly dances and square dances. Mr. Don Shaw and Mr. George Moorey were very capable of keeping all in the social mood and a very happy time was spent.

On behalf of all present, Mr. Don Shaw extended a sincere vote of thanks to Gordon Anderson and his boys, for making the entertainment portion of our program such a success.

The meeting closed with the singing of the "Queen" and a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Wilson and her committee. It was indeed gratifying to see such a nice turnout of parents, especially those of the higher grade pupils. And we do extend a hearty invitation for all to gather with us in the friendly atmosphere of our next meeting.
