BOMB THREAT PHONED TO THUNDER BAY COUNCIL

THUNDER BAY, Ontario — A bomb threat timed to coincide with the Inaugural Meeting of Thunder Bay City Council was telephoned to Police last night. A search of City Hall turned up nothing of a suspicious nature.

The call saying a bomb had been placed in the building was made by a male voice one minute after the meeting began at 7:45 p.m.

The Council Chambers were filled to capacity with the audience including a number of school children on a class project.

Police swung into action quietly. Mayor Saul Laskin and others were notified of the situation and, while the Council Meeting continued, four policemen searched the entire building, leaving the Council Chambers to the last.

Mayor Laskin then called for a brief intermission, during which the chambers were searched. The Mayor said later it had been decided to "play it cool".

Ukrainians of the Kenora-Keewatin area will be celebrating midnight mass tonight and above is one of the many beautiful paintings in the interior of St. Nicholas C Church in Kenora. All join in wishing our Ukrainian friends compliments of the holiday season

KENORA ROTARY CLUB ENTERS FIFTIETH YEAR

With the Kenora Rotary Club celebrating its Golden Anniversary this year, Mondays meeting took the form of recalling pioneer members and events, when a special Anniversary committee under the chairmanship of Charles G. Stalker, reminiscenced after persual of old records and Miner and News files.

President Charles Hayes was in the chair and welcomed two visiting Rotarians, Al Groves of the Dryden Club and Andy Cowie of the Fort William Rotary Club. Jim Langley of Calgary was a guest of L. A. Toole. Attendance was 81.36% last week and 90.16% this week. The president also welcomed two new Rotarians, Don Bruce and Martin Voth to membership.

Congratulations were also extended to the Kenora club rink that won the recent Selkirk club bonspiel. The members were J. O'Flaherty, E. M. Newman, J. Watterson and W. Stewart, with Archie Davidson as coach and manager.

C .G. Stalker in speaking of the club's fiftieth anniversary with the first meetings of the club on February 20th, 1920, said it was a time of reflection, remembering pioneer members, and past achievements. It was also a time for re-dedication and re-consideration of Rotary ideals and a fine history of the club's activities over the half century.

It was noted that two hundred and thirty-eight other clubs in Canada and the United States would also be celebrating their fiftieth anniversary this year.

L. A. Toole said the club's records were recorded in the Lake of the Woods Museum. In a "look back for fifty" he found that there were fifteen charter members, with Chris McKinnon now the only survivor. February 10th, 1920 was the date of organization and the first meeting February 20th. John Goldie was first president, Chris McKinnon sergeant-at-arms and C. N. Schnarr the first secretary.

Listed as charter members were: J. T. Brett, W. G. Cameron, H. P. Cooke K. C., A. T. Fife, J. Goldie, J. J. Horn, C. W. Jackson, Joseph Johnson, C. McKinnon, D. McLeod, Dr. J. P. Paton, C. G. Royds, C. N. Schnarr, M. Seegmiller and G. A. Toole.

Added to the list in July of that year were J. P. Earngey, R. W. Neilson, and F. V. Witts. The song sung by the members today "She Wore A Yellow Ribbon" was the first song sung by the club members fifty years ago at their first meeting.

R. H. Schneider advised that with the date conflicting with the Rotary International meeting on February 21st in Winnipeg, a new date for the olcal observation of the event would be seected in May or June. A big dance and banquet was on the planned program with special costumes of old times. Named to the dance and banquet committee were Don Bruce, Don Dingwall, Ralph Kilner and P. Billings.

Rotarian Ed Woodrow dipped back into the newspaper files and added considerably to the review of old timers and events. He also came up with some prices appearing in old advertisements which indicated that inflation was not one of the problems in those early days. A olcal policeman for the Kenora Force was offered $100 a month in those days. Honour rolles in schools had been perused with Ken McInnis, present Rotary member in the top bracket, Member R. Kron was also mentioned in a helper capacity as a youth for a local store. Hockey was prominent in the first but curling was seldom mentioned.

With closing time intervening the discussion on the Anniversary was postponed to a later meeting.

McKeough-Bernier Attend Ear Falls Inaugural

The first 3 improvements district trustees for the newly organized municipality of Ear Falls were officially sworn in Saturday at a well attended public meeting at Ear Falls.

Those taking the oath of office, which was administered by Kenora M.P.P. Leo Bernier and assisted by the local Justice of the Peace Ron Nicholls, were Chairman, Colin Campbell and trustees Ritchie McKeintyre and U. M. Dart.

Leo Bernier opened the meeting with a brief review of the history of Ear Falls, the community that has enjoyed development from a small hydro colony to a bustling mining, lumbering and tourist centre.

He paid tribute to the members of the local Chamber of Commerce who have acted in the capacity of a municipal council for the past several years.

Mr. Bernier, who also complimented the Ear Falls Citizens Committee, which was set up 2 years ago to provide all the citizens with a voice in the direction of their community's affairs.

He indicated that with an organized local municipal government, the growth of Ear Falls would develop in an orderly manner with local direction.

He proudly presented the board Chairman with the municipality's official corporate seal.

The Hon. Darcy McKeough, Minister of Municipal Affairs, flew up specifically from Thunder Bay for the Inaugural Ceremonies.

He expressed his government's desire to assist Northwestern Ontario's newly created community in every way.

This assistance began when he announced that 2 mobile trailers, now being used by the Provincial Department in Ear Falls, would become the property of the new municipality for their use as temporary town offices.

The Municipal Affairs Minister reassured those present that the provincial government was very much aware of the great potential of that area.

He made specific reference to the tremendous mining developments that have recently taken place at Bruce and Uchi Lakes.

He outlined their recommendation for expanded municipal facilities that Ear Falls could provide. The Minister was accompanied by his wife and senior officials of his department.

Board Chairman Campbell announced that the first meeting of the newly appointed Ear Falls Council would be held on Monday, January 5th, 1970.

Senior Citizens Plan Visits To Pinecrest

The Senior Citizens held their last meeting of the old year at the Recreation Centre on Tuesday, December 30. There were 25 members present.

The meeting opened with the Senior Citizens Prayer and Rally Song.

Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved. Sec. Mrs. Martinson then read a poem called "My Moment With God".

An entertainment committee was formed to look after this job for three months. They are Mrs. Rush Mrs. Samson, and Mrs. Connelly. It was also decided that names be taken in alphabetical order and those chosen which would be two a month were to bring a prize to be given to the winner of a contest. carried.

There will be no band practice for Jan. and Feb.

Mrs. Peterson brought in a cook book which is composed of the favorite recipes of the members. It is to be raffled and the winner will be very lucky, as she will have some well tested recipes. The winner of the contest was Mrs. George and prize was donated by Mrs. Peterson.

Our President Mrs. Coppard suggested that three or four of our members visit Pinecrest Home each month for their birthday tea. This is a very good suggestion and I am sure the folks in the Home would be very pleased to see us especially if they know you. Let us keep this in mind and try to carry it through. The ladies played bingo for awhile, after which lunch was served.

Our next meeting will be held on January 13. I hope to see you there.

Darn Easy!

When repairing a ribbed section in a hand-knit garment, make a loose darn (which will resemble the knit), then do two rows of stem-stitching to replace the ripped edge, and you should have a practically invisible mended place. Sometimes a chain stitch is effective for mending. This method is used by mending experts.

LATE NEWS BULLETINS

Montreal Journalist Jacques Larue-Langlois, leader of a group agitating for the release of two jailed separatists, has been arrested and is to appear in court today. He was arrested last night at his home on warrants charging him with disrupting the court after one of the separatists - Pierre Vallieres - was convicted of manslaughter last December 18th.

Vallieres was sentenced to 30 months for manslaughter in the 1966 bombing death of an employee of a Shoe Factory in Montreal's east end. Also charged was Charles Gagnon. He was acquitted of non-capital murder but is serving time for conspiracy to commit armed robbery. Both have been behind bars since 1966.

The President of the National Farmers Union says there is widespread grain bootlegging in Saskatchewan. Roy Atkinson says this is disastrous because it breaks down the Canadian Wheat Board price structure. Mr. Atkinson also says there is some grain bootlegging in Southern Alberta.

The Special Senate Committee on Poverty wants to hear the views of the provinces. The Committee has invited all Provincial Ministers of Welfare and Social Services to make presentations during May. Committee Chairman Senator David Croll says the provinces can make a significant contribution to the War on Poverty as they have had the most experience dealing with the poor and in the handling of Public Services.

In a statement today in Ottawa, Senator Croll said indications are that the assistance offered those in need varies greatly across Canada. He said the poor who depend on the various assistance programs don't eat from the same table. He said there is a lack of uniformity both in the volume and in the quality of assistance and services across Canada.

Nearly four thousand coal miners are reported off the job today at six large mines in southwestern Pennsylvania. They stayed away when pickets turned up to suggest a stoppage in memory of slain mine union official Joseph Yablonski. The bodies of Yablonski, his wife and daughter, all shot, were found in their home in Clarksville yesterday.

Some Yablonski backers in the recent Union Presidential Election, which he lost, have suggested a nationwide strike in his memory. However, Yablonski's two sons have spoken out against any work stoppages or Union memorials dedicated to their father. They also say they want no International Union Members at his funeral and suggest that the murders grew out of the election campaign.

Prime Minister Trudeau opened his skiing vacation in the French Alps today, trying the highest and most difficult trails at the elegant resort of Courchevel. On his first four-hour session, the Prime Minister was accompanied by the resort manager, an adviser and two security men - one a Canadian; the other French.

The manager said Mr. Trudeau will grant no interviews or make statements to newsmen. He plans to stay at Courchevel a week or ten days before returning to Ottawa.

that certain inherited values be preserved; that the seventies could bring political anarchy and social chaos. "It will be a surprise to us if there is not great violence," continues the editorial, "Viet Nam will end, Communism will spread, Africa will have many Biafras, the Middle East will explode again, and in North America more blood will flow."

Sees Decline In Province's Population

TORONTO — An Ontario government economist says the birth control pill and a decline in immigration to Canada could put the province's population growth rate back to 1930 levels.

Ontario's population, now nearly eight million, has been growing at an average of 2.46 per cent a year since 1941. During the early years of the depression, the annual increase was only one per cent.

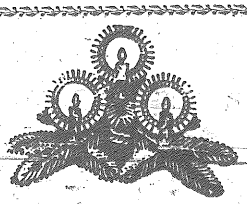

Rudolph Kugler says in the Ontario Economic Review that for the last four years, immigration has accounted for 56.4 per cent of the total growth.

Predict Violence And Revolt

A lead editorial in the January United Church Observer predicts violence and revolution in the seventies. "Historians of the future will find that we have been passing through a period of radical social revolution," says the editorial, "we end the sixties in bitter protest against oppression. Minorities are demanding, not reforms, but revolutionary change."

These minority groups, says the Observer, aren't proposing non-violent change and aren't insisting

In today's two legs of the race, the 16-year-old Miss Clifford was clocked in one minute, 37.67 seconds, not far behind the winner, Michele Jacot of France, who lengthened her lead in the World Cup point-standing. Miss Jacot was timed in one minute 37.49 seconds.

In second place in the standings is Francoise Macchi of France with 71 points and Barbara Cochran of the U.S. is third with 70.

Setback For Canada Hockey

TORONTO — Canada's withdrawal from World Hockey competition has been hit with its first serious setback.

Harold Wright, President of the Canadian Olympic Association, said today that it will be necessary for Canada to qualify for the 1972 Olympics by competing successfully in the 1971 World Hockey Championship at Geneva next year.

The statement, released in Toronto, is contrary to the stand taken by Earl Dawson, President of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, in Geneva on Sunday.

Dawson said Canada will not compete in any International Hockey Championship prior to the 1972 Olympics at Sapporo, Japan.

Recreation Tips

Here we go again, the same old story as last winter; five snowmobile deaths caused by collision with motor vehicles on public thoroughfares in Ontario and the season is barely that many weeks old.

These words were written at the Ontario Safety League office two days before Christmas, 1969. By the time you read them in the opening days of 1970, a new recreational fatality record will have been established in Ontario unless snowmobiles suddenly wake up and realize that operation of their machines on public thoroughfares heavily travelled by motor vehicles is suicidal. The fact that such travel is legalized in many instances by provincial laws has nothing to do with it, this is a personal matter of life and death. Statistics proved during the winter of 1969, and are again emphasizing the fact as we enter the current winter season, that the greatest hazards for snowmobilers in Ontario are found on public thoroughfares where there can be a dangerous conflict with motor vehicles.

The Ontario Safety League is not against the use of snowmobiles. On the contrary, the League has again and again promoted this new and excellent recreation with helpful aids to the snowmobiling public such as their publication, "Snowmobiling, Where to Go in Ontario", and the production of thousands of snowmobile trail markers urgently needed by resorts and snowmobile clubs to safely mark the trails that are being developed in the vacation areas. This is an excellent sport and a real boon to outdoors-minded people and the vacation areas of the province. But the League strongly urges snowmobile owners to keep these machines where they belong, on snow, not on the icy and hard-packed surfaces of heavily travelled roadways where they become unmanageable.

Arrival of Beer Ends Drought in S. Vietnam

VUNG TAU — The great Australian drought ended in South Vietnam Sunday when the supply ship Jeparit steamed into port with a precious cargo of 1,632,000 cans of beer aboard.

The Aussies serving in Vietnam were forced to drink weaker American beer over Christmas and New Year and they didn't like it.

"The boys here are pretty thirsty and sick of American beer," said Pte. Brian Harper, 21.

Beer is a serious matter for Aussie soldiers and when they're separated from it, trouble looms. There are dark stories of officers' messes being set ablaze by angry troops when the beer ran out in North Africa during the Second World War.

The great thirst descended on the Aussie soldiers in South Vietnam when stevedores back home refused to handle military cargo for the Jeparit as a protest against the war.

The Australian government, apparently conscious of the delicacy of the beer situation, got around the problem by commissioning the freighter into the Royal Australian Navy and summoning navy enlisted men to heave the beer aboard together with other military cargo.

B.C. searchers find 3 bodies; 5 still missing

CAMPBELL RIVER, B.C. — Searchers yesterday found the bodies of three of eight persons missing since Saturday aboard a 22-foot cabin cruiser.

Police said the bodies of a man and two boys were discovered near Cape Mudge on the southern tip of Quadra Island, three miles from here. They were wearing lifejackets and were tied together.

The eight missing were identified as Harry Dirks and five of his children—David, 18; Arthur, 17; Tim, 15; Grace, 11 and Linda, 9—and friends Jimmy Falk, 14 and Heidi Mayer, 8. All were from Black Creek, a farming community 15 miles south of Campbell River.

The search began Sunday after the eight were reported missing on a one-day, 30-mile trip to Toba Inlet on the mainland.

Gales and snowflurries hampered searchers.

Biafran plane was destroyed, Lagos claims

LAGOS — Nigerian troops have shot down a Biafran plane on a bombing raid in the northwest battle sector, it was announced last night in Lagos.

A Nigerian statement said troops brought down the Swedish-built propeller-driven Minicon as it tried to bomb Nigerian positions at Awka.

The plane was wrecked and the pilot's body was burned beyond recognition, the statement said.

Awka is about 50 miles west of Enugu.

The Minicons—Swedish trainers converted to carry rockers—originally were brought in to boost Biafran air strength by Count Carl Gustav von Rosen.

Hong Kong speculates on China quake toll

HONG KONG — The Chinese Government remained silent yesterday about a major earthquake in the southern province of Yunnan despite outside speculation that Kunming, a city of a million people, was directly affected.

The Royal Observatory in Hong Kong said the epicentre of the potentially destructive quake was close to Kunming, near the Chinese-Burmese border.

The Hong Kong paper China Mail went further and sail the quake was believed to have levelled part of the city.

But China had not reported the quake nearly 24 hours after it struck. The Japanese Meteorological Agency placed the epicentre of the thinly populated border with Burma, which would make damage minimal.

Kunming, a Second World War U.S. air base and now an important rail link with North Vietnam, is about 250 miles from the border.

The Royal Observatory estimated the quake's epicentre at 750 miles west-northwest of Hong Kong, which would put it close to Kunming.

But observatory sources said such estimates are not perfect and a small error in calculation could shift the epicentre from the Kunming area to the jungles of northern Burma.

The quake registered between 7.5 and 8 on the Richter scale. The most powerful tremors ever recorded registered 8.9.

Yunnan, a region of high limestone mountains, forests and valleys, is prone to earthquakes. It has a population of 2 million.

Masse arrives for Paris talks

PARIS — Marcel Masse, Quebec's minister in charge of intergovernmental affairs, arrived here yesterday for talks with French Government leaders.

He was greeted at the airport by Jean de Lipkowski, French secretary of state in the Foreign Office; Quebec's delegate-general here, Jean Chapdelaine, and other officials.

Mr. Masse and Mr. de Lipkowski today will open the new premises of the France-Quebec Association, formed last year with the aim of regrouping various friendship associations between France and the French-speaking Canadian province.

QUARREL, KILL

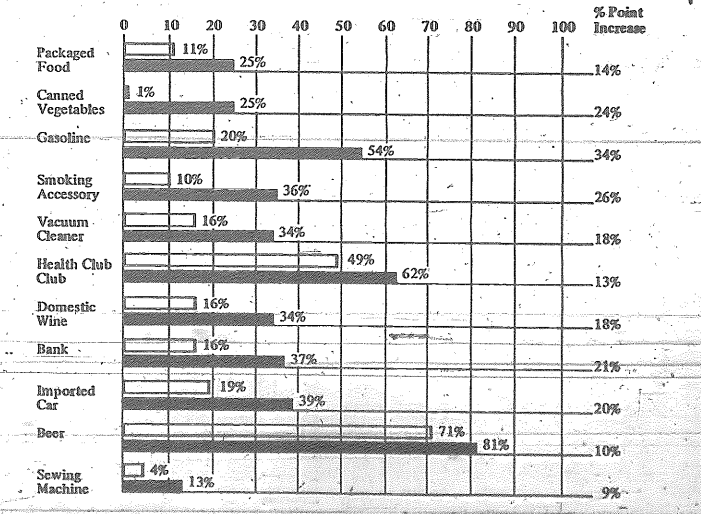

BEIRUT — Four Lebanese hunters fired at the same bird Sunday, and each one claimed the kill. In the ensuing argument they turned their shotguns on each other. Three were killed and one badly wounded.

Daily newspaper advertising works.

A key measure of any advertising medium is its ability to reach consumers—and newspapers reach almost all consumers in Canadian markets.
Then the advertising must communicate a message that is remembered.
The chart below shows the per cent of people who recognize advertising themes before and after a newspaper advertising campaign—people who use these products and services.

ADVERTISING THEME RECOGNITION

Percentage of target audience correctly identifying theme before ☐ after ■ campaign.

These and other research reports in a series of studies in Canadian markets reinforce the facts—advertising in Canadian daily newspapers is a sound investment for success in the market place.

Many Skins For Maxi Coat

Raccoon fur is used in both natural and dyed shades--full-haired for callars and either full-haired or sheared for coats. It is also being bleached white, then tip-dyed black or brown, a change so radical that the fur no longer looks anything like raccoon.

Deep, sily lynx fur is probably the most beautiful trim of all. Today it not only graces downtown wear, but is also found on sportswear. Many a pert snowbunny wear a lynx trimmed ski jacket.

Christmas Reception Held At Minaki

On December 23rd at 7:30 p.m., the twenty-three men attending the Administration Course for Indian Bands hosted a social evening at Holst Point Lodge.

Invited guests from Kenora attending included Mr. E. G. Clyde and Mr. Clark Dilly of Indian Affairs; Mr. and Mrs. M. Farrow and Miss C. Barber of Confederation College, and Mrs. T. Proudlock from Canada Manpower. Several guests from Minaki were also present.

Men attending this course come from the Pawitik, North-West Angle, Rat Portage, Grassy Narrows and Whitedog Reserves.

An entertainment programme was the highlight of the evening. Mr. Eugene Keewatin was master of ceremonies and instrumental selections were given by Ken Redsky, Larry Boyd, Joe Tom. There were songs by Clarence White and Ken Redsky interspersed with much humour from the master of ceremonies. The closing instrumental had been composed especially for the event and was called "Minaki Break Down Boogie".

A buffet lunch was served in an appropraite setting of crackling fire and candle light in the lodge dining room.

The Band Administration Course has been provided to assist the Indian people in handling band affairs and to eventually take over their own administration. It is divided into three parts of twelve weeks each. One is being held now, the second to start in the Fall of 1970 and the third in 1971.

Today's Children

These little boys with the elfin faces are Jerry and Tom, Ojibway Indian brothers with a strong family resemblance and a deep attachment. They should be adopted by parents who want two sons so they will not have to be parted.

Jerry and Tom are healthy youngsters, active and fond of the outdoors. Just now their chief interest is skating. They enjoy TV when they are inside. Both have dark brown eyes, black hair and olive complexions.

Jerry, in the cowboy shirt, has just turned six. You can tell his disposition by his smile, for Jerry is a happy, outgoing boy. He is alert and always full of questions.

Jerry goes to kindergarten, which he loves. He learns easily and appears to be very bright. He is an extremely good conversationalist for such a young boy.

Tom is four and eager to start to school. He appears to have average potential. Glasses worn for far-sightedness and astigmatism make him look rather solemn, and indeed he is less outgoing than his brother.

Tom has gone through a period when he was very quiet and seldom spoke to adults, though he got on well with other children. However, he is gradually becoming less shy and more talkative, really enjoying attention. Tom is a determined child who can display quite a temper when things go wrong.

These appealing brothers need a mother and father in a warm, stimulating home. To inquire about adopting Jerry and Tom please write to Today's Child, Department of Social and Family Services, Parliament Buildings, Toronto 182.

Gump refuses Hab demotion to Voyageurs

MONTREAL — Lorne Gump Worsley, veteran goalie with Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League yesterday reiterated he would not accept demotion to a farm team.

Worsley spoke with Canadiens general manager Sam Pollock who had asked the 40-year-old netminder to reconsider his statements made last Monday. At that time, Worsley told Pollock he would retire rather than report to Montreal Voyageurs of the American League to work himself into shape for a two-week period.

He has not dressed for Canadiens since late December. The Habs have used Rogatien Vachon as regular netminder and installed Jack Norris and Phil Myre as backups.

Canadiens also announced Monday that left-winger John Ferguson, missing from the lineup since Dec. 13 when he fractured his thumb in a game against Chicago Black Hawks, would start tonight against Los Angeles Kings.

Injuries and suspensions have kept Ferguson inactive for half of the Canadiens' 36 regular games this season.

Blum, 1963 and 1964 U.S. riding champion, rode his first winner of the winter campaign following an extended vacation.

Royal Comedian, a 6-year-old son of Tom Fool, completed the run in 1:08 1-5 under 113 pounds.
