BRIER PLAY-OFF REPEAT

GORDIE PETERSON WINS THRILLER OVER McLEOD

Favoured by good weather and excellent ice conditions, the 47th annual Lake of the Woods Bonspiel moved into the "interesting" stage this morning in the Grand Challenge Event. Play in the other events is just nicely getting started on Saturday morning draws.

When play ended Friday night, here was the line-up of surviving rinks in the Grand Challenge Event:—

A. McLeod vs. G. Peterson	Pearson vs. Tillberg
N. Houck vs. W. Smith	Baker vs. Watterson
F. Crewe vs. Tressor	Ross vs. Young
Lumsden vs. Kirton	Duguid vs. Pitura
Baldwinson vs. Gauthier	Borne vs. Ruddock
Cymbalisty vs. Dingwall	Kucher vs. Norton

The feature of the 8:00 a.m. draw saw two Brier rinks meet: Allan McLeod and Gordie Peterson. The game was tied on the 6th end, but McLeod came through with a fine shot to go three in front (7-4) on the 7th. Peterson picked up a pair to close the gap 7-6 on the 8th. On the 9th end, McLeod missed a straight take-out on the 12 foot circle, and the game was tied. Peterson managed a fine roll shot with his last stone, which ended on the button, and was well guarded. McLeod's last draw shot was slightly heavy - and Peterson won, 8-7, on the 10th and final end.

An extra end game on an adjoining sheet in the Recreation Centre between Baker and Watterson wasn't settled until the last rock was thrown. Watterson was leading 7-2 at one stage and held an 8-4 lead after 8 ends. On the 9th Baker picked up a pair, setting the stage for a remarkable shot on the 10th which tied the score. On the 11th end, Baker "buried" a stone on the four foot, to win the contest in a remarkable come-back effort.

Other winners on the 8:00 a.m. draw included Terry Tillberg, who had too much going today for the Pearson foursome; Glen Kirton who trimmed the Lumsden quartet in an abbreviated contest; and Baldwinson who advanced over Gauthier.

Play continues at all three rinks this afternoon and evening, with finals being played on Sunday in all four events.

LATE NEWS BULLETINS

The Greek military regime in Athens announced today it has signed a two-million-dollar Trade Agreement with neighboring Albania. The agreement was signed earlier this week in Paris.

Greece and Albania are theoretically still at war as they have never signed a peace treaty. A Greek spokesman says the trade agreement does not mean the two countries will exchange diplomatic relations. He says it's merely a policy of having free trade with all countries.

Health Minister John Munro says he would like to see professional recreational personnel take charge of a movement to enable more Canadians to use recreational facilities. The Health Minister told a Physical Education seminar at Ontario's Guelph University yesterday the government would support a program involving communities more closely in recreational activities.

Mr. Munro said the government will try to broaden its definition of recreation as a means of increasing support for such programs. He said his department is studying and reassessing its program of physical fitness research.

There may be an election in Manitoba in the not too distant future. A hint of such a possibility was given last night by NDP Premier Ed Schreyer, speaking to a party fund-raising dinner in St. Boniface. The Premier urged the party members to prepare for any eventuality, including an election. However, he said later it is his policy to hold office for a full four-year term unless defeated in the House.

Mr. Schreyer told the meeting the provincial government faces a tough spring session in the legislature. The NDP holds only a one-seat edge in the 57-member House.

A committee has been set up to examine the feasibility of setting up a Canadian Association of Science Writers. The committee was established today at a meeting in Montreal of 20 Canadian Science reporters.

The committee is composed of Earl Damude, Editor of the Medical Post in Toronto, Dave Spurgeon of the Toronto Globe and Mail, and Herb Lampert, a free-lance Montreal writer.

Youth Frozen To Death

The body of a seventeen year od Indian youth from the Rat Portage reservation was found in a deserted shack on the McKenzie Portage Road, west of Kenora on Friday. MJHL Clubs In Talent Scramble

The names Ray Brownlee, Steve Carlisle and Chuck Lefley are very much in focus throughout MJHL centres these days and official announcements regarding their hockey future should be made public shortly. All three players are very much in demand since they are free agents and eligible for Junior Hockey. Brownlee is presently with the Brandon University Bobcats while Lefley and Carlisle are members of the Canadian Nationals whose feature is uncertain since Hockey Canadas' withdrawal from the current world hockey scene.

Unconfirmed reports have it that at least two of the threesome may suit up with the Dauphin Kings. The Dauphin Club has made overtures to both Brownlee and Carlisle while concrete offers have been thrown at Chuck Lefley. Reports have it that Lefley will be driving a new Oldsmobile should the suit up with Kings and will receive a neat monthly allowance, sufficient to keep the young man in the seat of luxury. Reports have it that the Montreal Jr .Canadians are also making serious overtures for Lefley's services.

Kenora Muskies manager Marcel Bouvier confirmed that the Muskies had also approached the threesome and that chances of signing any one of them were very slim. Bouvier indicated however that all three could be wearing the Kenora uniform should the Muskies win the MJHL and pick them up as CAHA playoff additions as set down by league regulations.

You may recall that the Dauphin Club lured Butch Goring, who is now in the NHL, and Merv Haney away from the Winnipeg Jets about this time last season and the pair strengthened the Kings considerably. Should the Kings land this much sought after talent they could be a mighty tough crew to handle. One must remember, however, that no one player makes an entire team. All three could cause just a bit of trouble for the rest of the MJHL clubs. Reports out of Winnipeg also have the St. Boniface Saints very much in the picture.

The Muskies meanwhile travel to St. James to tangle with the Canadians. The Muskies need a victory if they entertain hopes of capturing first place. They presently trail Dauphin by 7 points but have two games in hand. By the way, Dauphin has yet to win since their 9-3 victory over the Muskies, losing one and tying three. Yes, things are getting mighty interesting.

Dick Duff Traded To L.A. Kings

Montreal--Veteran National Hockey League leftwinger Dick Duff has been traded to the Los Angeles Kings by the Montreal Canadiens. Montreal will get a player to be named at a later date. The 33 year old Duff had been with the Canadiens since December 22nd, 1964. He was traded to Montreal by the New York Rangers in exchange for Bill Hickie, now with the Oakland Seals. Duff played his last game with Montreal December 13st against Pittsburgh. He missed a New Year's Day practice and has since been benched b y Coach Claude Ruel.
A club spokesman said that Duff had talked over the trade with Assistant General Manager, Floyd Curry and had indicated he was looking forward to the move. This is Duff's 15th season in the NHL. He played eight and ahalf seasons with the Toronto Maple Leafs before being traded to the New York Rangers. He remained in New York until the 1964 switch to Montreal.

Today's Children

Joyce is a pretty ten year old with hazel-brown eyes, long - lashes, light brown hair and a clear, fair skin.
Her background is French - Canadian and she speaks both French and English.
She is a healthy, active little girl. Skating is her favorite sport, but she likes rough games and is a bit of a tomboy. In contrast, she enjoys domestic, feminine things like helping with cooking and working on crafts. She is a warm-hearted child, anxious to please, and always alert for small kindnesses she can do.

Joyce is especially fond of music -She does not shine in school, where she is in Grade 4, but it is felt she would do much better if she had the encouragement of her own parents.
Joyce is an engaging little girl, who would fit into either a French or English home, except that her written English is not as good as her French. She should be the youngest in the family.
To inquire about adopting Joyce, please write to Today's Child, Department of Social and Family Services, Parliament Buildings, Toronto, 182.

Princesses In Mod Outfits Will Be Focus Of All Eyes

When Lake of the Woods Carnival time rolls around, the Carnival Queen and her Court will observe a 3-day reign, and will be the focus of all eyes as they take part in celebration -happenings.

Several Clubs in the local communities have chosen their Princesses already, and others are awaiting their next meeting, according to the Queen Contest Chairman, Charlie Strachan.
Entries must be in by the last of this month, he says, -Carnival dates are March 5th,6th, and 7th.
The Queen contest, a popular Carnival feature will follow the traditional lines, but will adjust in some ways to the new scene.

This year, for outdoor events, the Princesses will wear brightly colored ski jackets over - fashion-new jump suits. Lovely formal dresses will be worn for the dances, and the tiaras given them, will sparkle only in competition with the light in the girls' eyes.
The Princesses have already received an invitation to appear on the Winnipeg TV program - Around Town- . Local organizations are planning to have the contestants as honor guests at meetings and banquets. On these occasions the girls will be accompanied by one or more of the Kinette members as courtesy Chaperones.

Sad State(ment) Of Affairs In Winnipeg

Winnipeg--A Professor says many of the prostitutes working in Winnipeg are happily married suburban housewives helping out with the family budget.
This finding is reported by Professor William Morrison, head of the University of Winnipeg Sociology Department, who is conducting his research with the aid of a 25 hundred dollar Canada Council Grant.
Professor Morrison says more than fifty women who engage in prostitution described themselves to him as happily married, many of them with families.
Some said their husbands are aware of what they are doing and do not frown upon the profession " as it brings in more money to support the family."
He says business is usually conducted from the home during the day, altho a fair amount is done in hotel and motel rooms selected by the client.
Professor Morrison's study has concentrated on the Call Girl, who usually only accepts appointments on the recommendation of a previous client, and not on the less-selective streetwalker.
He says: " These girls honestly believe they are doing a service to society and not a disservice, and their clients are usually happily married upper-middle-class types who think they cannot get sexual satisfaction with their wives."
Professor Morrison sees no reason why prostitution should not be made legal, particularly now that restrictions have been removed on homosexual relations between consenting adults.
The professor is married, with two school-age children. His eventual aim is to write a book on his findings which will give the prostitute " a better name than she has been labelled with in the past."

POPCORN IN EAR

LOS ANGELES — It cost John Gomez $420.00 in hospital and doctor bills to remove a piece of popcorn from the ear of his four-year-old daughter Cynthia. She couldn't say how it got there. An ear specialist removed it surgically. Gomez said Monday he had previously cancelled his medical insurance because it was "costing too much."

Dinorwic Corporation

Dinorwic corporation, a non-status Indian Corporation, which began its first year of operation last fall, received a $10,000.00 grant from the Department of Social and Family Services, and a $3,000 grant from Amik. This grant provided funds for the purchase of a barker, skidders (2) and a truck, while an additional skidder is being rented.

They presently have a contract for 2,000 cords of pulpwood of which 700 cords have already been delivered. More contracts for spruce and pine are available on the same cutting site upon the completion of the present contract.
Small problems, such as dirty fuel being used in the machinery, have now been rectified, and this corporation soon should be in full production.

Dinorwic's members have had no guidance and no idealistic plans for the future for many years past. This corporation represents for them, a worthwhile objective to provide them with restored hope and dignity.

Having never had the opportunity of working as a group in the past the new corporation concept is difficult for them to grasp and practice, but the training they receive will have tremendous effect on their future lives and the lives of their children.

The Whitedog Co-op Expanding

The Whitedog Co-op is now expanding its business and urgently needs more donations of clothing, furniture, household effects, beds, mattresses, chesterfields and kitchen utensils and so forth.

The Whitedog Co-op appreciates very much the donations of used articles and clothing which it has been receiving from the people of Kenora and district. They have been selling these donated articles to the residents of the Whitedog Reserve, in order to pay for the expenses of operating the Co-op. The Co-op now plans to extend its services to three other reserves.

In 1968 the Co-op made a profit of one thousand dollars. It used this money for the purpose of constructing a dam on a lake on the Whitedog Reserve. The dam was constructed for the purpose of controlling the water level on the lake and thus in turn to provide for a regular annual wild rice crop. A lot of work has yet to be done on this project before an annual rice crop will be insured. However because the Whitedog Co-op made a profit it was able to use these funds for the construction of the dam.

The Co-op has purchased and paid for a truck and trailer. It can now transport the donated goods and articles to all the Reserves as well as the Whitedog Reserve.

Non-Drinkers Club A Success

The Whitedog Reserve non-drinkers club is proving to be a real success. The club was started by Chief Roy McDonald for the purpose of encouraging the residents of the Whitedog Reserve to totally abstain from the use of alcoholic beverages.

The only requirement for membership in the club is a personal commitment to totally abstain from liquor. There are no membership fees. However, a lucky draw is made each month and club members only are eligible to participate in the draw. The Whitedog Co-op purchases the draw prizes. It will be paying all the operational expenses of the club.

The club first started in July of last year with a membership of one. However, the membership has increased monthly and at the Christmas and New Year period there were forty-four members in the club. Chief Roy McDonald is certain that there are several other Band members who have not joined the club but who are totally abstaining from the use of alcohol. These members are testing themselves before they actually take up membership in the club. The plans are to hold regular monthly meetings on the last day of each month. Chief McDonald is hopeful that he can eventually convince every resident of the reserve to join the club.

In the meantime the club has been instrumental in reducing the problems which occur from the use of the alcoholic beverages on the reserve. There have been inquiries from residents of other reserves as to what steps should be taken in order to start a similar club on the other reserves in the district.

ALL BUT THE SMELL

NEW YORK (AP) — Tomorrow's garbage man will be a magician. He will turn the millions of tons of trash and garbage now produced in American homes into useful products, reports John H. Abrahams Jr., manager of environmental pollution control programs for the Glass Container Manufacturers Institute. "The time is close at hand when we will be able to salvage everything but the smell in the garbage can," he said.

Mrs. Watts expressed the thanks of the group to Mr. Jones, who is also Choir leader at St. Alban's.

The Fellowship Hour will meet Wed., Jan. 28th at 1:30 p.m. under the chairmanship of Mrs. Stephen.

Farewell Charlie

Its goodbye Charlie. Charlie the Computer, that is.

The computer named Charlie had been used this season by basket ball coach Ron Farris of Spencerian Business College in Louisville, Kentucky. Charlie's problem was that he was too accurate-- at least as far as Farris was concerned. He predicted the outcome of nine of the team's first ten games and didn't miss the final point spread by more than 3 points. Farris decided to decommission the computer after it predicted that Southern Baptist Semiary --"A team the coach expected to beat-- would defeat Spencerian by two points. The final score was Southern Baptist 96, Spencerian 95.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS CAN BE IMPORTANT

The majority of summer-home owners and others residing in unorganized areas will have received, or will soon receive, their annual bill for Provincial Land Tax.

We say the "majority" advisedly - Not all cottage owners continue to reside at the same permanent mailing address, and those that fail to notify the Department of Lands and Forests of their change of Address, will of course, not be receiving their bill when expected.

There are approximately 8000 Provincial Land Tax accounts in the Kenora Forest District. From 200 to 500 of these, tax bills can be expected to be returned by the postal authorities each year because of inability to deliver. Some times it takes as long as six months to obtain the new address of the tax payer; sometime not until he is in residence at his cottage during the summer, and during this time penalty and interest accrue.

All Provincial Land Tax bills are mailed from the Toronto Head Office of the Department by January 15th of each year, and the regulations require that the bills be paid by February 28th next following. Unpaid bills are liable to a penalty of 5% and interest is added at the rate of one half of one percent per month. The Provincial land Tax Act states that the responsibility for notifying the Department of change of address is on the property owner. Failure to do so could result in penalty and interest - amounting to a considerable sum for the taxpayer.

The department would like to remind Kenora Forest District Tax payers that if they have not received their bill within the next week or ten days, they should contact the Department at Kenora or Dryden. Tax payers are also reminded that the bills may be paid directly to Toronto or at the local offices, and to avoid delay, and confusion, payment should be accompanied by the tax bill.

Huge Jade Find In B.C. Interior

Toronto-- An announcement of a major jade find in the mountainous interior of British Columbia is to be made officially in Toronto today.
Meanwhile, officials connected with the discovery describe it as a major one which could make Canada a major producer on the world market.
The find was made by prospectors of Kuan-Yin Jade Industries Limited, of Vancouver, a private firm.
It is about 700 miles from Vancouver near the Alaska Panhandle, but its exact location is a closely-guarded secret.
A forty thousand pound pice of faw jade from the area is en route to Japan where plans are to exhibit it at the B.C. Pavilion at Exp 70.
It has been insured from one million dollars.
Officials say the find contains gem-quality jade along with industrial deposits.
They describe it as a "sizeable find" but would not attempt to place a dollar value on it.
The discovery apparently was made some months ago, but kept secret to permit further staking in the area and to obtain expert opinion on its quality.

All around us are countless germs waiting for the opportunity to enter our bodies. A neglected scraping of the skin, a cut on your weakened, tired body can permit one to enter and live.

Each germ or virus has an unfailing instinct to reproduce and can multiply quickly. A fever is one of the first signs that they are becoming a danger. Take your temperature during any illness and call a physician if you have a fever. We can supply an accurate thermometer.

Defeat At Hong Kong Start Of Ordeal

For the two Canadian battalions at Hong Kong in 1941, defeat in battle was " merely the first act in a long and terrible crucifixion." Those were the words of William Allister of Montreal in "The Canadians at War: 1939-45" , a new Reader's Digest book.

"For three years and eight months -says Allister, "the indescribable ordeal of imprisonment continued - full of death, disease, beri-beri epidemics, starvation, brutality. Dragging our sick bodies to labor in the topic heat at bayonet point, we were truly a legion of the condemned.
